Happy New Year to our clients!

With the new tax season upon us we would like to inform our clients of what is new or expected for 2022 returns.

Standard Deduction Increases			Child Credit Decreases
Filing Status	2021	2022		2021	2022
Single / Married Filing Separately	12,550	12,950	Child Tax Credit	3,000* / 3,600*	2,000*
Head of Household	18,800	19,400	Dependent Care Credit	8,000* eligible expenses refundable	3,000* eligible expenses nonrefundable
Married Filing Jointly (Qualified Widow)	25,100	25,900

As with every season, we try our best to accomplish a quick turn-around time. To best avoid any delay, we ask clients to review their tax documents to ensure that you have gathered all information we may need.

For your convenience, we have included a checklist on the reverse side of this letter. We encourage you to use this, in addition to reviewing your tax documents from last year.

If you prefer to meet with Ryan, please call as soon as possible to schedule an appointment. These openings fill up very quickly!

If you send us your tax documents electronically, feel free to email Alyssa or Danielle to set

Alyssa@StropesAccounting.com

Danielle@StropesAccounting.com

If you stop into the office to drop off your tax documents in person— please plan to spend a couple minutes answering a few quick questions so we may update your information!

If you prefer to drop off your documents outside of office hours, feel free to use our secure drop box located right outside our office door.

To guarantee your return is filed by the April 18th deadline we need to receive your tax documents no later than March 24th
